

EYRE PENINSULA NEWSLETTER JUNE 2015

Greetings to all nashos around South Australia and a special greeting to our members that live out of Port Lincoln e.g. Tumby Bay, Cleve ,Cowell , Whyalla, Ceduna, Streaky Bay.

You are all welcome if you have email I can send our minutes to you please send me you email address.

Nasho Noel Reidy has been busy with over seeing work for the Dole participates at the RSL cemetery in Port Lincoln what a great job his team has been able to do right dress the head stones , clean and polished paint the head stones plus a lot of other maintenance work around the cemetery well done Noel.

Nasho Bill Sivor his job at the cemetery has been care of all the RSL Roses they are a credit to you.

This year's ANZAC day 100yr celebration has come and gone we had the biggest crowd of people that attended this year celebrations members attended the Dawn Service no rain the 11am march and service we all got wet there were about 25 members who marched under our nasho flag.

At the 11 am service a rescue helicopter come in and landed on the oval to pick up a patient it bought memories to the Vietnam members.

At short notice our Padre Norman Johnston decide to do a ceremony from the sea with the tuna boat the Tacoma resembling the laying of wreaths in Albany when the first continuant left for Gallipoli unfortunat the weather made it rough to do it I like to thank Norman, Allen, Ticky,Ross Haldane and the crew of the Tacoma for there assistance